

THE MONETARY SITUATION.

A Scarcity of Currency Exists in New York.

IS IT BEING HOARDED.

Sub-Treasury Doing Everything Possible to Relieve the Strain.

The Clearing House Loan Committee Has Issued $500,000 More Certificates Making the Total Amount Now Issued $2,115,000.

NEW YORK, July 5.—The chief features in the monetary situation today, according to several leading bank presidents, were unrest, lack of confidence and scarcity of currency. The latter appears to be becoming a very serious matter, and some banks are pretty hard pushed to secure enough to meet demands upon them. Late Monday afternoon a check was received by telegraph for large amounts of currency from Boston, Baltimore, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh. A dispatch from Philadelphia today reported the refusal of a bank here to pay a check on it for $150,000 in cash. The holder of the check, it said, would insist on the check being paid in cash. One of the most influential members of the clearing house said this afternoon: "It is all nonsense this talk about an actual scarcity of currency, but if everybody keeps on talking about it there will soon be one." The clearing house committee has issued $500,000 more certificates today, but they are attempting to hoard their gold.

Orders for currency by mail this morning were reported light, but it is said that in view of Monday's experience it could not be estimated. The president of one of the large national banks in speaking of the scarcity of currency, said that a large amount of currency was locked up in the vaults of the trust companies. He knew of one trust company that had $3,000,000 of currency locked up in that way.

At the sub-treasury today it was said that there had been no telegraphic transfer of money, but $200,000 in small notes had been exchanged for large ones. The scarcity of currency in the banks it was said, was known, and everything was done by the treasury officials possible to relieve the strain. The sub-treasury in this city has at present only $13,000,000 currency in hand, but it can draw for two or three millions more from Washington if the occasion requires.

The clearing house loan committee issued $500,000 more certificates today, thus making the total amount now issued $2,115,000.

PUEBLO BANKS CLOSE.

Runs Are Made on Them and Three Shut Their Doors.

PUEBLO, Colo., July 5.—The bank panic did not reach Pueblo until this morning, then it came with a vengeance. When the American National bank opened for business a large number of depositors were waiting to take out their money. A note posted up stated that the bank would close business at once and that its assets were $1,200,000 and liabilities $650,000. The bank commenced to close the Western National and First National. The Western National closed its doors before noon. They have deposits of over $1,000,000 and were always considered a safe bank. Hundreds stood in and about the First National bank all day and depositors were paid as fast as the paying teller could handle them. The general expectation is that the First National will be able to pay creditors in full when called for and that they cannot be forced to close.

The Central National closed at noon. Assets about $170,000 and liabilities about $70,000.

A run was made on the Public Savings bank but they took care of the demand of the bank which allows them sixty days. The bank is regarded as perfectly safe. There is a much better feeling this evening and the worst is believed to be past. A number of the banks can pay in full as soon as they can realize on collateral.

The Bank of Florence, at Florence, Colorado, closed its doors today. It was a branch of the American National Bank of Pueblo. Assets and liabilities are unknown but it is claimed creditors will be paid in full.

OMAHA BANK FAILURES.

The American Savings Bank Goes Into Liquidation.

OMAHA, Neb., July 5.—The American Savings bank has gone into voluntary liquidation and asked the state banking board to wind up its affairs. This action is due to the fact that the American Loan and Trust company which was placed in the hands of a receiver this afternoon at the instance of directors of the concern, the company being the principal stockholder in the savings bank. The failure of the investment company is attributed to the failure of the Omaha and South Texas Land company.

The American Loan and Trust company, the first of the concerns embarrassed, had a paid up capital of $400,000, the savings bank was an off-shoot with a capital stock of $100,000 which was paid in. O. M. Carter was president of both institutions. Since the failure of the McCague bank the American Savings has been affected to a considerable extent. Deposits to $60,000. The remaining securities amounting to $253,000 are of the very best. The total liabilities amount to $613,000.

Carter gave a mortgage on his residence yesterday for $50,000 to protect eastern creditors from whom money was exacted. No statement of the bank's exact condition can be obtained tonight.

THE WHITE METAL.

A Statement Showing the Amount Offered to the Treasury the Past Six Months.

WASHINGTON, July 5.—Inquiry at the treasury department today as to whether the amount of silver offered the government was as large now as formerly developed the fact that for the first six months of the current calendar year, offers aggregated $2,000,000 ounces, while for the same period last year they were only $5,390,000, showing an excess for the corresponding period of this year of $6,600,000, which would indicate that the production of silver was not falling off in the United States. The amount of silver bullion imported for the first six months of the current calendar year, including that in ore, was $8,741,000 ounces, while there has been exported 11,908,000. Of the amount of silver offered to the government during the period 27,000,000 ounces were purchased.

A proposition which is now talked of is to adopt a resolution at the next session giving the President power to suspend until such time as he may see fit the purchase of silver bullion, is one that does not meet with approval, and silver men say they would fight such a proposition with as much vigor as they will the repeal of the Sherman law, for they believe the effect of such a resolution in the

A CURIOUS REQUEST.

It Is Made by a Prisoner in the Montana Penitentiary.

HELENA, Mont., July 5.—[Special.]—The governor's office today received a curious request from the Dear Lodge penitentiary. It was from Dr. M. L. Tonneck whose term for numerous forgeries expires in September. When sentence began Tonneck's flowing hair and whiskers were cut off short according to prison regulations.

In view of the fact that his time expires in two months the doctor asks the prison board to make a rule allowing his hair and whiskers to grow out again so he may appear as himself when he leaves Dear Lodge.

Accompanying his request is a note from the warden of the penitentiary saying that when the doctor is discharged from prison, officers from New York state are expected to be in waiting with requisition papers to take him back there to answer more charges of forgery.

The doctor cut quite a swath here some years ago with big dinners and receptions which it was discovered later were paid for from the proceeds of forgeries.

THE FAIR NOW COMPLETE.

Elaborate Preparations Being Made to Receive the Caravans.

They Are Expected to Arrive on Friday—Exposition Finances in a Satisfactory Condition—$150,000,000 Will Be Left in Chicago.

CHICAGO, July 5.—Indications are that when the count is all completed it will show that over 300,000 people visited the World's fair yesterday.

Today opened fair and cool with a bracing breeze, and crowds began to flock through the gates early.

The government buildings of Costa Rica and Venezuela were dedicated today with exercises of an informal character. This practically finishes that work and a few days now will find the fair complete entirely.

Elaborate preparations are being made to receive the Columbus Caravans which are expected to arrive about the 7th, having entered Lake Michigan. The man of war Michigan accompanied by a fleet of vessels including the coast survey steamer Blake and revenue cutter Andrew Johnson, will go up the lake tonight after dark. With the Caravans this morning there will be a parade of United States troops, sailors and marines, with detachments of French, Italian, Russian and Spanish troops, and a number of queer people from the midway pleasure.

It is also intended to include soldiers from all the countries on earth as far as possible. Addresses of importance will be delivered by Hon. John Sherman and a number of other senators and prominent men including Allison of Iowa, ex-Speaker Reed and secretary and ex-secretary of the navy have been asked to participate in the exercises.

Exposition finances are fast assuming a satisfactory condition. An evening paper estimates that in the past few days of the fair a sum ranging from $120,000,000 to $150,000,000 will be left in Chicago by visitors. It is said that every day shows a gradual increase.

Total admission today 110,513, of which 79,245 were paid.

World's Fair Commission.

CHICAGO, July 5.—The World's Fair National commission met at noon and for the first time since their organization immediately went into secret session. Commissioner Tonneck, in making the motion, said that many things were to be talked over which should not be blazoned to the world.

President F. W. Palmer stirred up the World's fair national mission this afternoon on the Sunday opening question. He urged the adoption of the Hundley resolution which has for its purpose closing the gates on Sunday. After an expression of views by several commissioners President Palmer spoke, saying: "I am sick and tired of the petty squabbles that pretend to be the opening of the gates Sunday is in accordance with law. If the motion to adopt the resolution is lost I shall move a reconsideration and keep it up as long as the commission sustains me."

Commissioner Martindale asked for a postponement until the written opinion of the Justice of the Peace, which was claimed would settle the contentious, was obtained. President Palmer consented and the commission adjourned.

ENGLAND'S MINE HORROR.

Eighty-eight Bodies Have Been Recovered Thus Far.

LONDON, July 5.—The work of recovering the living miners and recovering the bodies of the dead, is being pursued as rapidly as possible in Ingram's colliery, Yorkshire, the scene of yesterday's explosion. The miners are working their way into the farthest workings as expeditiously as can be expected in view of the fact that they have to remove an enormous quantity of debris from the gallery. Thus far the bodies of thirty-eight dead, some terribly crushed or burned, have been sent to the surface. The air in the pit is comparatively good today, and this is the hope that the miners have. They may have reached places of safety and are still alive. It is believed that of 145 men in the mine at the time of the explosion, 110 are dead.

Late this evening the rescuers had brought eighty-eight bodies to the surface. Two men were brought up in an unconscious condition, but still breathing, and hopes are entertained that they will recover. Six men who sustained no injury, but were imprisoned behind debris, were dug out this evening. No reason for the delay in the rescue, but the conjecture is that it was caused by carelessness on the part of one of the miners in opening a lamp.

Eight men and boys have been rescued from the mine and all hope for others in the pit is abandoned.

RAIN AND HAIL STORM.

The City of Reading, Penn., Is Undated.

READING, Penn., July 5.—This city was visited by a rain and hail storm this afternoon which for destructiveness eclipsed all previous storms of the kind since 1866. The streets of the city were covered with hail and water and the sewers became choked. Grain, corn, oats, flower gardens, grapes and other fruits were stripped of their leaves. Vineyards and mountain farms were completely ruined. South of Reading wheat, rye and oat crops were leveled to the ground and many fields were flooded.

At Bardonia the down-pour was terrible. Citizens had to seek shelter from the force of hail, horses became unman-

THREE ARRESTS ARE MADE.

A Citizen's Reserve Formed to Resist Any Outbreak.

Prominent Supporters of the Ex-Queen, Claus Spreckels and Minister Blount, Said to Be Marked for Assassination—Trouble May Occur in Honolulu.

HONOLULU, June 28.—The developments of the past six days have been three arrests for conspiracy to overthrow the provisional government, threat against the life of Claus Spreckels and the organization of a society within the ranks of the annexationists, for the purpose of shooting down certain royalists in the event of any open attack upon the present government. Claus Spreckels found on his gate a few days ago a placard with a skull and cross-bones and bearing the inscription, "Gold and silver will not stop lead." He laid the matter before the ministry. Spreckels has made arrangements to leave for San Francisco tomorrow.

Two of the persons arrested for conspiracy are T. B. Walker, ex-O. C. Clerk, and Archibald Liviland. They are all English and the British Consul was disposed to interfere in their behalf, but dropped the matter when informed of the nature of the charges against them. The government claims to have evidence against the men showing that they were forming a plot to blow up the government buildings and then shoot the annexationists when they should rush to the scene. A large number of persons are being held in custody.

Six or seven hundred annexationists have formed a "Citizens' Reserve." They are armed with rifles and have selected certain prominent supporters of the ex-queen whose names are known, and marked them for slaughter in the event of a royalist outbreak. A member of this organization gave a list of the names of those marked for assassination and says that in addition to prominent Hawaiians it includes Claus Spreckels and Minister Blount in case they interfere in any fight that may occur.

The government took steps to protect Spreckels from further annoyance, and his home is now guarded by stalwart natives. The annexationists look upon the posting of the placards as the work of a practical joker.

In regard to the "Citizens' Reserve," the annexationists are greatly elated with the question of the government is a vital one with them; that in the event of a return of royalty to power their lives, property and families will be in danger. The fact is that their very existence depends on winning the fight, and they do not propose to take any chances, and to make doubly sure will kill off all who aspire to the throne. It is only fair to say that the provisional government officials have not been consulted in making these wild plans.

With all this talk of conspiracy and murder, there is hardly a possibility of trouble here. The natives are peaceably disposed and are generally of the opinion that the question is only a matter of time to be settled by the United States and anything they might do will not interfere with that settlement.

Annexationists are greatly elated with the fact that they believe to be reprimand to Minister Blount by the state department at Washington on account of his action in the Nordhoff case. Mr. Nordhoff, a newspaper correspondent of San Francisco, refused to allow the correspondent to answer the summons and notified the government that Mr. Nordhoff was under United States protection.

Mr. Blount's Cutting Case in Mexico as a precedent, but the provisional government took the ground that the Cutting case differed from this one. The Cutting case was a matter of articles in the United States, but was arrested and punished in Mexico. It is reported that Blount was unofficially notified by the government of Secretary Greaham's ruling, but did not do so until after Nordhoff's departure.

News of the appointment of the successor Mr. Blount was received here with satisfaction, as Mr. Blount's relations with the provisional government have not been of a pleasant nature and both he and the government will be glad to say farewell. Mr. Blount is calculating to sail July 19, and will take his final report on the Hawaiian question home with him.

A few days ago Spreckels announced that he was going to remain here and conduct his own fight against the provisional government. The reason for this was that he was afraid to be that his wife and daughter are frightened over the warning posted on the Spreckels residence and have insisted that he leave the country. Mr. Spreckels' intention of leaving is now a possibility, the news has become known to many people. Spreckels professes not to be in the least alarmed over the threat against him, and that he is amply able to take care of himself, but those opposed to him in politics assert the contrary.

The reason for this was that he was afraid to be that his wife and daughter are frightened over the warning posted on the Spreckels residence and have insisted that he leave the country. Mr. Spreckels' intention of leaving is now a possibility, the news has become known to many people. Spreckels professes not to be in the least alarmed over the threat against him, and that he is amply able to take care of himself, but those opposed to him in politics assert the contrary.

FURTHER RIOTS IN PARIS.

Numerous Conflicts Between Officers and the Mob.

A NUMBER ARE INJURED.

The Whole City Is Now Occupied by Troops.

It Is Believed the Boulangists Are Fostering the Trouble for Political Ends—The Original Cause for the Trouble Is Given Out.

PARIS, July 5.—It now appears that most of the rioting of yesterday was not by students, but by the riffraff, who took advantage of the occasion to raise a disturbance. This class resumed rioting this morning and had numerous conflicts with the police and soldiers. A number on both sides were injured. The affairs assumed a serious aspect that the authorities have determined to restore order at any cost. Almost the whole city is occupied by troops who have orders to repress disorder with a strong hand. The body of Neger, a young man killed in yesterday's riots was conveyed by unattended hearse to the railway station this morning and sent home to his parents at Lyons to avoid another uprising.

The mob has been cowed by the determined front presented by the government calling out the military, and all is quiet up to 6 o'clock this evening. It is feared, however, that the trouble will be renewed after midnight. The government will order troops to fire into the crowds if necessary. The trouble originally rose from the firing of the manager of the students' hall, he being fired for allowing girls to appear in a state little removed from nudity. The students, however, disgusted with the roughs for carrying things so far, have withdrawn from the streets and only the scum of Paris is now concerned. They assure the government that they no longer have any sympathy with the trouble, and have posted placards to that effect. It is believed the Boulangists are fostering troubles for political ends.

Tramway stopped omnibuses and tramway traffic at noon today to prevent a repetition of yesterday's disorders and to prevent groups from forming on the streets. There has been no further rioting. Several of those arrested for taking part in the riots have been sentenced to terms of imprisonment varying from one week to two months.

Midnight rioting resumed at 9:30 o'clock tonight. The mob assumed a threatening attitude and the police charged the rioters who made a determined stand. The trouble was followed. The struggle continued till the police were re-inforced by a large force of Republican guard when the rioters were dispersed. At 11:10 o'clock there was a sharp interference. One man was killed by a cut from a sabre and others were taken to neighboring drugstores where their wounds were dressed. Another man was killed by a sabre and burned it to ashes. The assistant brigadier of police was found drowned near Grenell bridge and is supposed to have been thrown into the water by rioters. Two hundred persons were arrested tonight for participating in the disturbances.
